FOOTBALL STINGERS TO MEET THE CARLETON RAVENS - SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 30th

The Concordia Stingers football team will attempt to get on the winning track this Saturday, when they play the Carleton Ravens in Ottawa.

Rookie coach, Skip Rochette and his team suffered their third straight loss this past weekend as they were bombed by the Queen's Golden Gaels 52-0. Rochette and his coaching staff are trying to find the solutions to the Stingers' problems.

"We are not the best team in the league," Rochette stated after the Queen's defeat, "but we certainly are not as bad as we have been playing. Our mental mistakes and approach to the game is what is hurting us the most."

Following the Carleton game, the Stingers will travel to Lennoxville on October 14th to do battle with Bruce Coulter's Bishop's Gaiters. They return home on the 21st for their final home contest of the season against the UQTR Patriotes. By that time, Coach Rochette will hopefully have some wins under his belt.
